

You are invited

If you can't come for the whole weekend, come join us for Saturday night!

Saturday, September 1st, 5:30 pm

Join us for Dinner at Highlander's 80th Anniversary Celebration Weekend

Food for Generations to Come

Food • Fellowship • Community

Enjoy a menu of fabulous, fresh flavors from local farmers and a taste of Highlander's commitment to sustainable communities and economies regionally, nationally, and internationally.

Salad of Tender Greens
Coleslaw with Apple-Yogurt Dressing
Vegan Apple Slaw
Rosemary Roasted butternut Squash

Hot Iron-Skillet Cornbread
Cruze Farm Butter

Highlander Apple Crisp

Choice of Savory Mushroom-Walnut Empanadas
Almond-Ginger Crispy Tofu
Carolina-Style Barbeque Chicken

Mint Tea from the Highlander Garden
Traditional Southern Sweet Tea
Hibiscus Tea

After Dinner 7 – 9 pm • Your choice of:

Live music & dancing: with Los Jornaleros in the Big Tent overlooking the Mountains

Or at the Workshop Center a Film Showing of *You Got to Move with comments from

Special guest: Sea Island Organizer Bill Saunders (featured in film)

HIGHLANDER 80TH ANNIVERSARY SEP. 1-2

Suggested donation for dinner $20. RSVP for dinner at reservations@highlandercenter.org

See full schedule for the weekend at www.highlandercenter.org/get-involved/events/12/

HIGHLANDER CENTER
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1
Two Concurrent Events
7 - 9 PM

FILM

You Got To Move

With Special Guest Bill Saunders (featured in film), organizer from John's Island, South Carolina, who has worked tirelessly for justice in the Charleston area for decades.

He was part of the Progressive Club on John's Island and came to Highlander in 1959 with Esau Jenkins, Bernice Robinson and Septima Clark. Later he served on the Highlander Board of Directors and also helped organize hospital workers in Charleston in a successful campaign from 1967-69. In the years since then, he has never stopped organizing.

LIVE MUSIC & DANCING with
Los Jornaleros Del Norte

A Los Angeles band of day laborers creating poetic and powerful songs about life on the other side of public visibility, combining ambient sounds like sirens and helicopters with traditional Latin rhythms, tejano, rumba and cumbia. Read about them at <http://leslieguttman.com/editorial/the-day-laborer-band/>

1959 Highlander Way, New Market, TN www.highlandercenter.org RSVP at reservations@highlandercenter.org

Los Jornaleros Del Norte